

INT. KITCHEN - DAY

JANESSA bursts in, dressed in skimpy hippie clothes and bearing GIFTS. Her older sister, SABRINA, is taken aback.

JANESSA
Happy birthday Kayla!

SABRINA
What are you doing here?

JANESSA
I come bearing gifts!
(pulling out gifts)
Rice wine from a mud village in Kyoto. Ceremonial river water from a shaman in Nepal. Careful, I think it's laced. Oh, and this peace pipe-

SABRINA
Stop it!

JANESSA
What? It brings good fortune and fertility...

SABRINA
Kayla's four years old, Janessa!

JANESSA
Don't call me that...My ancient name, from the people of Tabadue in the Andes is 'falling sky mountain tiger'...

SABRINA
You can't flit around the globe for two years and then just show back up like everything's fine!

JANESSA
I told you I was leaving to find myself, and that's what I did!

SABRINA
Yeah, in like a hundred different cultures! And I thought hippies were supposed to wear long skirts.

JANESSA
And I thought single mothers were supposed to set a good example.

She holds up a pair of MEN'S UNDERWEAR. Raises her eyebrow.
